

Token-based DME Algorithms

- A site enters CS if it possesses the token (only one token for the System).
- The major difference is the way the token is searched.
- Use sequence numbers instead of timestamps
- Used to distinguish requests from same site
- Keep advancing independently at each site
- The proof of mutual exclusion is trivial